§ 24. If any section, part or provision of this act shall be declared unconstitutional or invalid or ineffective by any court of this state, any party in interest shall have a direct appeal as of right to the court of appeals of the state of New York, and such appeal shall have preference over all other causes. Service upon the adverse party of a notice of appeal shall stay the effect of the judgment or order appealed from, and shall stay all actions, special proceedings or other acts within the scope of section 85.30 of the local finance law, pending the hearing and determination of the appeal.

§ 25. If any section, part or provision of this act shall be declared unconstitutional or invalid or ineffective by any court of competent jurisdiction, such declaration shall be limited to the section, part or provision directly involved in the controversy in which such declaration was made and shall not affect any other section, provision or part thereof.

§ 26. This act shall take effect immediately except that section eleven of the New York state financial emergency act for New York city as enacted hereby shall take effect November first, nineteen hundred seventy-five and shall be applicable to violations of such act committed on or after such date.
